DETAILED ACTION

Withdrawal of Finality of the last Office Action

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn. A new ground of rejection is given below.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 10-11 and 18-19, 21-22,27,31,35,39 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 2,21-22,26,30,34,38 is objected to because of the following informalities: They recite the acronym "SMS". This acronym should be spelled out. Appropriate corrections are required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 16-17 recites the limitation "the clock" in lines 2-3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1,4-9, 12-13,15-21 and 23-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Mizikovsky (US 5,327,486).

As to Claims 1,20,23-25,29,33 and 37, with respect to Figures 1-2 and 5, Mizikovsky teaches a method for replying to a call coming to a portable terminal wherein, in response to the incoming call, the portable terminal identifies the caller on the basis of caller ID (an identification information), or directs the incoming call to voice mail (another answering service), said reply having a form selectable from accessories (a plurality of forms of communication), and wherein said step of identifying the caller is accomplished by said portable terminal, and said step of sending a reply is accomplished by said portable terminal, said portable terminal being capable of performing said step of sending a reply by providing a selected response to said caller exclusively through the action of said portable terminal (Figure 1, label 50, Figure 2, label 114 and Figure 5, label 516).

Art Unit: 2645

As to Claim 7, Mizikovsky teaches a method in accordance with claim 1, wherein said reply is at least partly formulated based on the identification of the calling party (Figure 5, label 506).

As to Claim 8, Mizikovsky teaches a method in accordance with claim 7 wherein a reply is sent to certain identified calling parties only (Figure 5, labels 508,512).

As to Claim 9, Mizikovsky teaches a method in accordance with claim 7, wherein the reply to be sent in response to the incoming call is different according to the respective company said call is coming from (Figure 5, labels 508,512,516).

As to Claims 12-13, Mizikovsky teaches a method in accordance with claim 7, wherein said identification of the calling party is based on registered caller IDs (a telephone notebook) comprised by the communication (Figure 2, label 106).

As to Claims 26,30,34,38, Mizikovsky teaches a portable terminal in accordance with claim 25, wherein said step of taking response action comprises sending a reply to the caller, said reply being a voice message (one of the following: a voice message, e-mail message, facsimile, and an SMS message in the form of a character string) (Col. 8, lines 51-59).

Art Unit: 2645

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

10. Claims 2,6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mizikovsky in view of Jambhekar et al. (US 5,848,356).

As to Claims 2,6, Mizikovsky teaches a method in accordance with Claim 1, wherein the portable terminal sends said reply immediately in response to an incoming call, and said plurality of forms of communication include a voice message:

Mizikovsky does not teach the following limitation:

“an e-mail message, a facsimile message, and an SMS message in the form of a character string”

Art Unit: 2645

However, it is obvious that Mizikovsky suggests the limitation. This is because Mizikovsky teaches other accessory responses illustrated as peripherals could be used (Col. 7, lines 6-12). In particular, Mizikovsky teaches a facsimile peripheral which suggests a facsimile accessory and facsimile message; a multimedia terminal which suggests an e-mail accessory and response; EIA/T1A IS-54 alert messages which suggests a SMS accessory and response. Jambhekar teaches e-mail, facsimile and SMS messages (Figures 5P and 8A). Having the cited art at the time the invention was made, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to add e-mail, facsimile and SMS capabilities to Mizikovsky's invention for providing callers with response messages as taught by Jambhekar's invention in order not to distract a user by sending pre-programmed responses.

11. Claims 3-5,28,32,36,40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mizikovsky in view of Bremer (US 6,018,671).

As to Claim 3, Mizikovsky teaches a method in accordance with Claim 1, wherein in response to an incoming call,

Mizikovsky does not teach the following limitation:

“the portable terminal alarms and waits during a certain delay, and if a user during said delay does not answer said call, the portable terminal sends said reply”

However, it is obvious that Mizikovsky suggests the limitation. This is because Mizikovsky teaches providing users with alert signals and, therefore, waits for a user response (Figure 5, label 510). Bremer teaches the limitation (Figure 4, labels 416,420). Having the cited art at the time the invention was made, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to add default capability to Mizikovsky's invention for providing callers with default messages as taught by Bremer's invention in order not to keep a caller waiting.

As to Claims 4,28,32,36,40, Mizikovsky teaches a method in accordance with claim 1, wherein in response to an incoming call, the portable terminal alarms, and:

Mizikovsky does not teach the following limitation:

“if a user gives a certain key command, the portable terminal sends said reply”

However, it is obvious that Mizikovsky suggests the limitation. This is because Mizikovsky teaches providing users with alert signals and, therefore, waits for a user response (Figure 5, label 510). Bremer teaches the limitation (Figure 4, labels 416,418). Having the cited art at the time the invention was made, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to add selected message capability to Mizikovsky's invention for providing callers with selected messages as taught by Bremer's invention in order not to keep a caller waiting.

As to Claim 5, Mizikovsky teaches a method in accordance with claim 3, wherein the portable terminal gives a mute soundless alarm (Col. 6, lines 43-50).

12. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mizikovsky in view of Villa-Real (US 4,481,382).

As to Claim 14, Mizikovsky teaches a method in accordance with claim 7:

Art Unit: 2645

Mizikovsky does not teach the following limitation:

“wherein a reminder to call the identified calling party will be stored into the portable terminal, in order to be presented to a user later”

However, it is obvious that Mizikovsky suggests the limitation. This is because Mizikovsky teaches providing selected accessory responses to callers (Figure 5, label 518). Villa-Real teaches reminder messages (Col. 1, lines 50-63). Having the cited art at the time the invention was made, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to add reminder capability to Mizikovsky's invention for alerting users as taught by Villa-Real's invention in order to provide reminders to users when calls become due.

13. Claims 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mizikovsky in view of Wolff et al. (US 5,327,486).

As to Claims 15-17, Mizikovsky teaches a method in accordance claim 1, wherein said reply includes:

Mizikovsky does not teach the following limitation:

“time information”

However, it is obvious that Mizikovsky suggests the limitation. This is because Mizikovsky teaches providing callers with selected user accessory responses (Figure 5, label 518). Wolff teaches the limitation (Figures 8-9). Having the cited art at the time the invention was made, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to add time capability to

Art Unit: 2645

Mizikovsky's invention for providing callers with selected time-based messages as taught by Wolff's invention in order not to keep a caller waiting.

Response to Arguments

14. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-40 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
